I am the owner of Alternate Dimensions Gaming (formerly GeeksMtG) in Tullahoma, TN. Currently we are located at 217 South Anderson Street.

We currently carry a large selection of Magic: The Gathering products including booster packs, boxes, singles, sleeves, and accessories. We also carry Pokemon packs and singles, Yu-Gi-Oh singles, and Transformers TCG packs / singles and accessories. We have been expanding our product line to include Board Games as well.

Currently we have space for up to 48 players. You can host your D&D adventures as well as enjoy our board games. Currently we run Magic: The Gathering tournaments on Thursday night, Friday night, and Sunday afternoon and we run Transformers TCG events on Saturday evening. I am willing to expand to Pokemon and Yu-Gi-Oh tournaments if we have enough interest.

Come join us at Alternate Dimensions Gaming: Your dimensions for fun!
